Dear Ms. Best:

This is in response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated July 2, 2018, and received in our office on the same day. Your request was assigned FOIAOnline tracking number NARA-NGC-2018-000692, as well as the above internal tracking number. In your request, you stated that you were seeking "Copies of all drafted, submitted or received SF-716 forms produced from January 1, 2001 through December 31, 2017."

We conducted a search and were able to locate the National Archives and Records Administration's (NARA) SF 716 forms dating from 2001 to 2016 in sixteen documents totaling 53 pages. We are releasing the sixteen document in full with no redactions. These documents are being provided in PDF format and uploaded to FOIAOnline.

We also located the SF 716 forms provided to NARA from other government agencies. Although NARA was provided the forms, the information within the forms belong to the government agencies who submitted the forms. Therefore, we are referring these SF 716 forms to the agencies for review. You will receive a direct response from those agencies.

This completes the processing of your FOIA request.

If you are not satisfied with our action on this request, you have the right to file an administrative appeal within ninety (90) calendar days from the date of this letter via regular U.S. mail or email. By filing an appeal, you preserve your rights under FOIA and give the agency a chance to review and reconsider your request and the agency's decision. If you submit your appeal in writing, please address it to the Deputy Archivist of the United States (ND), National Archives and Records Administration, 8601 Adelphi Road, College Park, Maryland 20740. Both the letter and the envelope should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal." If you submit your appeal by e-mail please send it to FOIA@nara.gov, also addressed to the Deputy Archivist of the United States. Please be sure to explain why you believe this response does not meet the requirements of the FOIA. All correspondence should reference your case tracking number NGC18-367 and your FOIAOnline tracking number.

If you would like to discuss our response before filing an appeal to attempt to resolve your dispute without going through the appeals process, you may contact our FOIA Public Liaison Gary M. Stern for assistance at the address below:

Mr. John P. Fitzpatrick
Director
Information Security Oversight Office
National Archives and Records Administration
700 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20408

Dear Mr. Fitzpatrick:

As we are aware, the Information Security Oversight Office (ISSO) reports annually to the President on cost estimates for security classification activities. This requirement stems from two Executive Orders 12829, as amended, and 13526.

To meet the requirement of each Executive Order, attached is the Selective Service System's Report on Cost Estimates for Security Classification Activities for FY 2016.

After thoroughly reviewing costs associated with the security and management of our organization's limited classified material holdings and access requirements, we identified some significant estimate corrections from FY2015 to FY2016. Ms. Peggy Ushman within your office was able to provide my staff clear guidance and examples of those specific cost categories we needed to cite. Her assistance was much appreciated.

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact me, or the Point of Contact for this report, John Longshore at 703-605-4083.

Sincerely,

Dear Ms. Best:

This is in response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated June 22, 2018, and received in our office on June 25, 2018. Your request was assigned FOIAOnline tracking number NARA-NGC-2018-000663, as well as the above internal tracking number. In your request, you stated that you were seeking "Copies of all drafted, submitted or received SF-311 forms produced in the year prior to the receipt of the FOIA request."

We conducted a search and were able to locate the National Archives and Records Administration's (NARA) 2017 SF 311 form. We are releasing the five page document in full with no redactions. This document is being provided in PDF format and uploaded to FOIAOnline.

We also located the SF 311 forms provided to NARA from other government agencies. Although NARA was provided the forms, the information within the forms belong to the government agencies who submitted the forms. Therefore, we are referring these SF 311 forms to the agencies for review. You will receive a direct response from those agencies.

This completes the processing of your FOIA request.

If you are not satisfied with our action on this request, you have the right to file an administrative appeal within ninety (90) calendar days from the date of this letter via regular U.S. mail or email. By filing an appeal, you preserve your rights under FOIA and give the agency a chance to review and reconsider your request and the agency's decision. If you submit your appeal in writing, please address it to the Deputy Archivist of the United States (ND), National Archives and Records Administration, 8601 Adelphi Road, College Park, Maryland 20740. Both the letter and the envelope should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal." If you submit your appeal by e-mail please send it to FOIA@nara.gov, also addressed to the Deputy Archivist of the United States. Please be sure to explain why you believe this response does not meet the requirements of the FOIA. All correspondence should reference your case tracking number NGC18-353 and your FOIAOnline tracking number.

If you would like to discuss our response before filing an appeal to attempt to resolve your dispute without going through the appeals process, you may contact our FOIA Public Liaison Gary M. Stern for assistance at the address below:
